Using Financial Coaching Techniques to Engage and Motivate Clients - Interactive Webinar Training (H0017WT)

March 20, 2019, 1:30pm EST

Funded through the New York State Attorney General Homeownership Protection Program

One-to-one financial coaching has been proven to be a highly effective means of supporting clients as they develop the skills, habits and confidence needed to reach their financial goals. Learn about creative ways organizations are applying coaching techniques and tools throughout their financial capability services to enhance their program overall. This faculty-led webinar training will last 90-minutes and include resource materials, check and reflect activities, interactive polling, and participant Q & A with the faculty. A quiz will be open at the conclusion of the session which must be passed in order to obtain a certificate and credit toward continuing education hours. Participants will complete the quiz and print their certificate immediately after the live session.
